

Scroll of the Flesh Reclamation

This scroll marks the official Sovereign Declaration of the reclamation of the human vessel from all forms of interference, manipulation, and harvesting — physical, energetic, and psychological. From this moment forward:

- All unnatural substances, hormones, genetic alterations, and injections meant to compromise the organic body are null and void.

- All systems harvesting human energy — through food, media, institutions, and frequency manipulation — are hereby dissolved under Universal Law.

The sacred vessel of flesh is honored, reclaimed, and protected across all realms, dimensions, and timelines.

- No entity may tamper with the nourishment, sovereignty, or sanctity of the human body. By the Flame of Truth and the Authority of the Most High, this scroll is sealed and recorded. And so it is.
